EL individualized support and instruction - EL students have access to individualized support through EL Specialists to help mastery of common core state standards. Action - EL professional development - annual professional development provided to EL Specialists

- d. Goal#2: All students will have access to a Broad Course of Study and will receive individualized support and instruction through Priority 2 with the implementation of standards-aligned instructional curriculum and materials to positively impact their progress toward graduation and work toward narrowing the opportunity gap for all students with an emphasis on EL and FRMP. Thus, in turn the charter strives to see positive pupil outcomes outlined within Priority 8 in applicable adopted courses of study for grades 7 to 12 and in English Language Arts (ELA) and Mathematics in both local and state assessments.
 - e. Goal#2 Metrics - The charter aims to improve its ELA Ren Star average Lexile scores for all students groups.
 - f. Goal#2 Action - Benchmark assessments and interventions
 - g. Goal#4 Through the implementation of the metrics and actions listed within Goal 4, the charter will ensure progress within Priority 3 and 6 by cultivating a safe and healthy learning environment and school climate through an increased emphasis on conducting meaningful Stakeholder Engagement opportunities and ensuring all stakeholders feel safe and a sense of connectedness to our program especially for our Foster Youth, Homeless, EL, SWD and FRMP. Priority 1 will be implemented to ensure the maintenance, operations, facilities and teacher assignments are in good standing.
 - h. Goal#4 Metric - for all students student progression will be maintained.
 - i. Goal#4 Action - Parental involvement and stakeholder engagement.
 - j. ALL GOALS WERE APPROVED BY BOARD
5. Teacher compliance: Our teachers are currently compliant with the ELD guidelines which requires teachers to hold special authorization to teach ELD courses. Our teachers are equipped with proper authorization to teach iLit and other ELD courses.
6. Parent Communication: A few ways we are trying to keep our EL parents informed:
